OF ST. JOHN OF JERUSALEM OF RHODES AND MALTA

PERMANENT OBSERVER MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS OFFICE
AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS IN NEW YORK

Hwajeong Alice Ju
Advisor

As a bilingual Korean-English interpreter with over four years of experience in interpreting and translation across various fields, she specializes in simultaneous interpretation for international conferences and media productions. Alice is deeply interested in bilateral international relations and sees herself as the voice behind the power of language.

Alice completed her secondary studies in Poland, where she participated in Model United Nations (MUN) and volunteered as a violinist in the choir at the Korean Catholic Church of Warsaw, where she also received her baptism. These experiences sparked her interest in pursuing studies related to language. Alice is currently in her final year of a Bachelor's degree in 'English for International Communication and Conferences' at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, while working as an interpreter on high-profile projects such as the Seoul Olympic Legacy Forum, the Food Safety Department at CJ CheilJedang, Export Conferences at the World Trade Center, and the Global Education Fair at Yeosu Expo.

Her diverse interests have led her to engage in various activities both on and off-campus. Actively pursuing opportunities in diplomacy, including participation in "Diplomats in Action" hosted by the American Diplomacy House in Seoul and serving as an observer at university Grand Cube international conferences.

Alice has been an active member of the Philharmonics as a violinist and a professional translator at the University Students Interpreters Association. She has also served as an English teacher, essay tutor, and a special lecturer at the Hankuk Academy of Foreign Studies for teenage children. Her career demonstrates her passion and potential to lead future projects, engage with the international community, and highlight critical issues while bridging cultures and serving the vulnerable, in alignment with the esteemed mission of the Sovereign Order of Malta.
