

SOVEREIGN MILITARY HOSPITALLER ORDER
OF ST. JOHN OF JERUSALEM OF RHODES AND MALTA

PERMANENT OBSERVER MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS OFFICE
AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS IN NEW YORK

Pablo Camprubí
First Secretary

Pablo comes from an Anglo-Chilean family. Born in Ireland, he spent his early years in Argentina and Venezuela, and later moved to the UK. He first became involved with the Order of Malta as a teenager, participating in the Order of Malta Volunteers' (OMV) annual pilgrimage to Lourdes, France, as well as other activities in the UK and Lebanon.

Pablo completed his BA in International Relations and Modern Languages at the University of Exeter, followed by an MSc in Defence, Development, and Diplomacy at Durham University. His academic interests included Conflict Prevention and Sustainable Peace, International Law and Conflict Intervention, Post-Conflict Reconstruction and Statebuilding, Migration Studies, and Contemporary United Nations Peacekeeping.

Since joining the Mission, Pablo has been active in the Human Rights, Social and Humanitarian Affairs Sections, contributing to the Mission's work in the General Assembly's Third Committee, as well as the Security Council. He also supports the Press and Public Information Section and the Administrative and Protocol Section.
