PERMANENT OBSERVER MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS OFFICE
AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS IN NEW YORK

Somin Park

Advisor

Somin earned her bachelor's degree in French and English Interpretation and Translation from Hankuk University of Foreign Studies in the Republic of Korea, where she developed a profound interest in international relations and diplomacy.

Somin's academic and professional journey includes serving as a Korean delegate at the Korea-America Student Conference (KASC) 17. As a member of the International Relations and Political Science Roundtable, she collaborated with international peers to analyze global political issues, focusing on trilateral cooperation in regional security and diplomatic cooperation among the U.S., Japan, and the Republic of Korea. Her team's research culminated in a presentation at the American Diplomacy House in Seoul, where she delivered insightful analysis regarding the implications of the 2023 Camp David Summit and the future of trilateral relations.

Her experience further includes interpreting for international events, such as the World Scout Jamboree 2023 held in Seoul, where she provided interpretation services to facilitate seamless communication among global participants from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.

Her expertise in language services, diplomacy, and cross-cultural dialogue highlights her dedication to fostering meaningful international cooperation and advancing the mission's humanitarian goals. As an Advisor, she employs her dynamic skill set to address global challenges, contributing to the Sovereign Order of Malta's mission of humanitarian service and multilateral diplomacy.
