Theresa Bulfon
Advisor

Theresa, a German citizen, holds a degree in Classics from Durham University (2021), where her bachelor's thesis explored the intersection of narratology and gender studies in Ovid's Metamorphoses. She went on to earn a master's degree in management from ESCP Business School in Paris in 2024. Her experience as a rapporteur in a European Union simulation sparked her passion for international politics. Theresa's interests include defense, international law, diplomacy, and humanitarian rights.

Theresa has gained experience across diverse industries, including finance in London and a healthcare startup in Vienna. She remains highly attuned to the geopolitical climate, recognizing its critical importance in shaping business and societal dynamics. Theresa holds deep admiration for the Order of Malta, recognizing its commitment to humanitarian aid grounded in Christian values.
